PETER AND JOHN LEADERS IN THE EARLY CHURCH

LESSON TEXT—Acts 2:37-41; 3:1-8; 4:13, 18-21.

GOLDEN TEXT—Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus—Acts 4:13.

Does the Church have a message for our day? Sometimes one wonders a bit, but a little thought indicates that if it does not, it is not because Christianity has failed, but because Christian people have failed to declare the eternal and powerful truth of God. The primary responsibility for any such failure must rest upon the leaders of the Church.

It is instructive to see the qualities which made the leaders of the early Church effective for the Lord. In our lesson we find Peter and John doing three things.

I. Declaring God's Word (Acts 2:37-41).

Peter had just finished the first sermon preached in the Church, which was delivered at Pentecost. The declaration of God's truth in the power of the Holy Spirit brought conviction of sin. It always does, although the outward indication of its working may not be as marked as it was on that day. Three thousand souls were under conviction and a king what to do to be saved.

What an opportunity for the preacher and his fellow worker, Jesus. How did they meet it? By faithfully declaring the need of repentance and faith, and then of fellowship with others in the Church.

One mark of a real leader for God will always be that he preaches and teaches the message of God without addiration, without modification, and with plainness and simplicity.

The kind of leadership which is often magnified in the Church today and which is largely made up of personal magnetism, "pep" and fast talk is not real leadership at all. Test your leaders by their faithful and intelligent declaration of God's Word.

II. Conveying God's Power (Acts 3:1-8).

"Channels only"—that is the function of the worker for Christ, the leader in His Church. As Mary Maxwell well put it:

Channels only, blessed Master,
But with all Thy wondrous power
Flowing through us. Thou canst use us
Every day and every hour.

Silver and gold was a scarce commodity with Peter and John, as it has been with many, yes most, of God's servants through the centuries. But they did have the blessed privilege of being channels through which the healing, cleansing, redeeming power of God could flow—and that was infinitely better.

The lame man had long since given up hope of anything better than the few coins he could beg at the temple gate. He was like many in our hard and practical age who see only the values that money can give, and thus miss the real blessing of God.

God has for men today, as He had for this beggar, that which is far better than gold—deliverance from sin and liberation from the limitations of spirit which make them content with the paltry alms of men.

Peter and John were ready to be used of God because they were men who were not too busy to pray (v. 1). Knowing the compassion of God they sought out the one in need, and by faith put the unlimited power of God to work on his behalf.

God healed this man's body, but what is more important, He healed his spirit (v. 8). We need that kind of healing for the weak-kneed, lame-ankled, spirit-darkened individuals in our communities and our churches. We will have it only as our leaders are men and women who are cleansed—ready to be channels for the conveying of God's power to a needy world.

III. Doing God's Will (Acts 4:13, 18-21).

The way of life of God's leaders is not an easy one, but it is a simple one. They do God's will—nothing less, nothing more, and nothing else. What could be more delightful?

Peter and John had spoken the truth and declared salvation to be only in the name of Jesus (v. 12). Certain easy talkers within the Church who tell us that we must not be narrow but broad enough to ree salvation in all religions, had better read that verse again.

Because they had preached Christ, and for no other reason, they were imprisoned, then released on condition that they would not mention Him again. What a splendid opportunity for a smooth and comfortable compromise! They could preach but just leave out Christ. Did they do it? No! (vv. 19, 20).

Obedience to God was paramount with them, and it must be with every genuinely Christian leader in the Church. Nothing else will do, nor will it have the blessing and approval of God.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Quote a stack of newspapers I tell you yesterday, Judge. Aren't goin' in the newspaper business, are you?"

"No, I just enjoy reading different papers so my nephew George sends them to me whenever he takes a business trip. I got a big kick out of some he sent me from several counties where they still have prohibition. Particularly from some headlines that read 'Drunk Driving Arrests Rise'.

Bootleggers must post Ceiling Prices', Federal Agents seize 'Trick' Liquor Truck'. Doesn't that go to prove, Joe, that prohibition does not prohibit?

"I watched conditions pretty carefully during our 13 years of prohibition in this country. The only thing I could see we got out of it was hooley liquor instead of legal liquor plus the worst crime and corruption this country has ever known."

RESOLUTIONS

At a meeting of the official board of Appomattox Circuit, held at the parsonage on Friday evening, April 23, 1943, the following resolutions were adopted:

On Friday morning April 16, 1943 the community was saddened by the death of one of its most valued citizens, Joseph Garrette. Mr. Garrette was a devoted member of Mt. Comfort Methodist Church and had served as steward since the death of his father, Monroe Garrette in January, 1934. He was most diligent in his work, a young man of unusual ability and high moral character, loved, honored and respected by all who knew him. He was kind and affectionate in his home and gave a hearty welcome to all who came under its roof.

With the going of a friend and brother so dear, we can only think of him as one who has joined the great host of saints in the better world, where no sorrow or pain or death shall ever come. In his going the Methodist Church has lost one of its most ardent members.

Be it therefore resolved: That we bow in submission to the divine will of God and pray that his blessings may be with the bereaved family. Second, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, to copy to the Virginia Methodist Advocate, and to the Times-Virginian for publication, and a copy be inserted in the records of the Board of Stewards of Appomattox Circuit.

Navy Yards Set Records In Delivery of Vessels

SAN FRANCISCO. — A woman clutching a bottle of champagne nervously mounted the steps of a scaffold at a West coast shipyard the other day. On the platform company officials and other dignitaries were waiting excitedly. The only flaw in the picture was that there wasn't any shoe to christen.

"But where's the ship?" she asked one of the officials on the platform.

"Don't worry about that," he said soothingly, "just start swinging."

The story may be a trifle exaggerated, but here are some unvarnished facts indicating the lightning speed with which Liberty ships are rolling out of shipyards on the West coast.

In one month the Oregon Shipbuilding corporation at Portland delivered 13 ships in an average of 27.3 days. Richmond shipyard No. 2 delivered 10 ships in an average of 43.8 days. Richmond shipyard No. 1 delivered eight ships in an average of 49.9 days, and the California Shipbuilding corporation at Wilmington turned out 13 ships in 50.8 days.

IT IS NOT TRUE THAT Snakes won't die UNTIL SUNDOWN

It is commonly believed that a snake—at least its tail—will not die until sundown, if it is killed earlier in the day. This is, of course, untrue. Snakes will have muscular contractions for hours after they are dead; and their hearts can be taken out and they will continue to beat for hours in a dish of water. A chicken, also, will jump and flop about after its head is severed, but it is dead. The dying out of these muscular contractions in dead snakes is in no way related to the setting of the sun.
